

Statement by Minister of Tourism Emilie Jessy Menos

In the wake of Hurricane Irma's devastating impact in the Caribbean, Haiti is thankful to have emerged unscathed. In our shared spirit of community within the Caribbean, Haiti extends its hospitality, as well as any and all relief assistance, to all islands affected.

All services remain in operation and we continue to welcome visitors. Travellers are advised to contact their local travel agent or booking agent for detailed arrangements about their bookings.